

☆☆ OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE ☆☆
MEGHALAYA, SHILLONG.

CIRCULAR NO.39/2011.

It is observed that investigating Officers are not writing CDs regularly in connection with the cases pending with them. This state of affairs has resulted because the institutional mechanism of CIs and senior officers supervising the investigation of cases seems to have fallen into disuse. In order to ensure proper investigation and timely disposal of the same, the Superintendents of Police of the districts are hereby directed to ensure that CDs are written by the investigating Officers regularly in all the cases. They should closely monitor the position in this regard on monthly basis.

Superintendents of Police should submit report indicating the position in this regard to IGP/DIG Ranges with copy to DGP, ADGP (CID) and ADGP (L/O) after each monthly review.

Failure of Superintendents of Police to ensure that I/Os write CDs regularly will be commented upon in their APAR/ACR.
