

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR GENERAL OF POLICE
MEGHALAYA : : : SHILLONG

CIRCULAR NO. 7 /2013

It is observed that reports submitted by Superintendents of Police to the National Human Rights Commission (NHRC) following incidents of custodial death and death in police encounters, are not properly drafted. Poorly written reports, which have to be mandatorily sent to the NHRC within a fixed time-frame set by the Commission, do not reflect well on the Department.

All District Superintendents of Police are, therefore, instructed to ensure that the drafted reports meant to be sent to outside agencies are duly vetted by their respective range IG/DIG before issue to NHRC.
