

State Police Constable to represent India for the Title Mr. Universe in Body Building

A felicitation programme was held in the office of Superintendent of Police, West Garo Hills, Tura on 06/11/2017 to honour Shri Prosonto Basumatary, Constable of 1st Meghalaya Police Battalion, a contender who is representing India on International Stage of Body Building for the Title Mr. Universe scheduled to be held at Budapest, Hungary w.e.f. 18th November, 2017 to 20th November, 2017.

The felicitation programme was organised by the West Garo Hills District Police to recognize the diligence and commitments that the aspirant has shown to achieve the success by participating number of domestic Bodybuilding events and thereby brought fame and glory to the Nation & State of Meghalaya in General and Meghalaya Police in particular.

A memento with letter of appreciation was handed to the aspirant along with the words of appreciation and best wishes applauded by the staff of SP Office, West Garo Hills, Tura.