No. C.13/2019/185

Dated Shillong, the 09th June 2021

PRESS RELEASE

ADVISORY

It has been observed that many social media users have been posting/commenting/circulating/uploading photographs or videos, denigrating, blaming and shaming the victims of crime against women and children. Several Social Media groups including WhatsApp groups have also been actively engaging in circulating information about the victims which is tantamount to violation of law.

In view of the same, netizens are requested to refrain from posting/commenting/circulating information disclosing the identity of the victim, or shaming/blaming the victim. Stringent action as per relevant sections of law will be taken against any person/group admins found violating the law.
