PRESS RELEASE

This is to inform that on the 1st June, 2025 forenoon, a written test was conducted for the post of AB/BNC/MPRO GD/Constable Handyman in various Districts. However, despite clear instructions about examination's rules and conducts to the candidates, in one of the examination centres in East Jaintia Hills, two candidates bearing Roll No. 22049407 and Roll No. 22022738 were reported to have resorted to malpractices by using unfair means during the examination which amounted to violation of the rules/guidelines of the Examination. Such misadventurous act is condemnable and intolerable in a Transparent Recruitment Process (TRP) adhered to by the Central Recruitment Board (CRB), Meghalaya Police. Hence, in viewing the matter seriously, the individuals bearing the above roll numbers are hereby debarred from future police recruitment irrespective of post(s) to be conducted by the CRB and their candidatures for this present recruitment stand rejected.

If the concerned persons wish to contend/appeal or file representation against this Order, they may do so to the appellate authority CRB by submitting petitions through the Superintendent of Police, East Jaintia Hills District who is the Examination-in-Charge of police examinations held within East Jaintia Hills District.
