PRESS RELEASE

This is to inform that on the 31st May, 2025 afternoon, a written test was conducted for the post of Driver Fireman in various Districts. However, despite clear instructions about examination's rules and conducts to the candidates, in one of the examination centres in East Jaintia Hills, one candidate bearing Roll No 33032220 resorted to malpractice by using unfair means during the examination which amounted to violation of the rules/guidelines of the Examination. Such mis adventurous act is condemnable and intolerable in a Transparent Recruitment Process (TRP) adhered to by the Central Recruitment Board (CRB), Meghalaya Police. Hence, in viewing the matter seriously, this particular person bearing the above roll number is hereby debarred from future police recruitment irrespective of post(s) to be conducted by the CRB and his/her candidature for this present recruitment stands rejected.

If the concerned person wishes to contend/appeal or file representation against this Order, he/she may do so to the appellate authority CRB by submitting petition through the Superintendent of Police, East Jaintia Hills District who is the Examination-in-Charge of police examinations held within East Jaintia Hills District.
